Prayer for Today

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

All sit for the readings.

First Reading

Isaiah 6:1-8

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

People: Speak Lord, for your servants are listening.

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said:

"Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts;
the whole earth is full of his glory."

The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!"

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Let it be unto us according to your Word.

Psalm 138

- 1 I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with my whole heart; *
before the gods I will sing your praise.
- 2 I will bow down toward your holy temple
and praise your Name, *
because of your love and faithfulness;
- 3 For you have glorified your Name *
and your word above all things.
- 4 When I called, you answered me; *
you increased my strength within me.
- 5 All the kings of the earth will praise you, O LORD, *
when they have heard the words of your mouth.
- 6 They will sing of the ways of the LORD, *
that great is the glory of the LORD.
- 7 Though the LORD be high, he cares for the lowly; *
he perceives the haughty from afar.
- 8 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; *
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand shall save me.
- 9 The LORD will make good his purpose for me; *
O LORD, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your hands.

Epistle

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Reader: A reading from 1st Corinthians.

People: Speak Lord, for your servants are listening.

I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you-- unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them--though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Let it be unto us according to your Word

Gospel Hymn

O Day of radiant gladness

Hymnal 48

Gospel

Luke 5:1-11

Deacon: The Gospel according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Prayers of the People

Deacon: In thanksgiving, let us lift our voices in prayer to God, who in Christ gives us the liberty of an abundant life, as we respond to each petition, "Hear us, God of glory."

For the Church, that we may hear and obey God's call to enter the unknown, confident that God's presence will accompany our obedience; let us pray to the Lord.

Hear us, God of glory.

For those who exercise leadership in our Church and in legislative bodies around the world, that they may keep the goal of cooperation ever before them, seeking those things that serve the common good, and enhancing the cause of justice and peace; let us pray to the Lord.

Hear us, God of glory.

For people throughout our state who come to private agencies and houses of worship to receive food, shelter, job training, child care, and other necessities of life, that they may receive respect and honor in their quest for daily needs; let us pray to the Lord.

Hear us, God of glory.

For this community of faith, that together we may have the courage to let down the walls of our fear and misgiving, trusting in Christ to fill us with all that is necessary for our common ministry; let us pray to the Lord.

Hear us, God of glory.

For all who are sick or suffering, for those on our parish prayer list, for those we hold close in our hearts,* that they find confidence in Christ's promise of peace and healing; let us pray to the Lord.

Hear us, God of glory.

Congregation may add their own petitions, either silently or aloud.*

Presider: Almighty God, to whom our needs are known before we ask: Help us to ask only what accords with your will; and those good things which we dare not, or in our blindness cannot ask, grant us for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Select one that you can help out with, place it in the envelope provided, and either put it in the collection plate or mail it to the church.
